

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE OF CATARRH

No remedy that does not entirely remove the cause of Catarrh from the blood will ever make a permanent cure of the trouble. Just as long as the circulation remains contaminated with the impurities and catarrhal matters which produce the trouble, the mucous membranes or inner linings of the body will be kept in a state of irritation and disease. Sprays, lotions and other local applications will sometimes temporarily relieve the tight, full feeling in the head, buzzing noises in the ears, uncomfortable, stuffy feeling of the nostrils, and help to loosen the mucus in the throat; but Catarrh is a constitutional blood disorder and until it has been entirely driven from the system there can be no permanent cure. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by removing the cause from the blood. It attacks the disease at its head and by thoroughly purifying and cleansing the circulation, and ridding it of every particle of impurity, and at the same time enriching the blood, allows the inflamed and irritated membranes to heal, improves the general health, and stops every disagreeable symptom. S. S. S. reaches down to the very bottom and leaves no trace of the disease in the system. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write.

ROUND TABLE

Sessions at Fairmont Are Largely Attended by School Teachers.

The first meeting of the Monongahela Round Table this year was attended yesterday and today at Fairmont by between 300 and 400 teachers. Sessions were held yesterday afternoon, last night and this morning. Clarksburg, Grants, Manassas, Fairmont, Morgantown and other places were represented. The prepared program was carried out. State Superintendent Thomas C. Miller was present and presided over one of the sessions.

Among those who attended from this city are F. L. Burdette and Misses Dunn, Higley and Pollock.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the halcyon questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispels the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials. The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

PLAYS and PLAYERS

Paul Gilmore, ever a favorite with Clarksburg theatre-goers, played to standing room only at the Grand opera house last night and again provided an evening of genuine entertainment and amusement to his large audience of admiring friends. The fact that the house was sold out yesterday afternoon before the "supper hour" demonstrated two facts; one that Paul Gilmore's popularity in Clarksburg is increasing and the other that the hard times were our domestic friends were trying to give us, just before the election was a fraud so far as Clarksburg is concerned.

The play is entitled "The Boys of Company B," and the leading role is the captain of a militia company that goes into annual encampment at which perplexing complications arise in his love affair, but these are happily straightened out just before the final curtain by the persistent efforts of the gallant captain.

In his advance notices, Mr. Gilmore is authority for the statement that he has this season the most effective part he has ever played, and while he was charming and played his part with skill, it cannot be said that the piece possesses the potency and absorbing interest that the most of his former vehicles have had.

Mr. Gilmore has a fairly good supporting company this season, the chief parts being that of Harry R. McJannet as Arthur Stabler, the millionaire snob, which was strongly presented and provided a good stage lesson on overbearing egotism; and Miss Mable Wright, the leading woman, who did well. The woman playing the part of Eileen McClellan's mother was not motherly enough for the character; she was wont to indulge in broad grins at serious situations.

The three acts were nicely staged, as all of Mr. Gilmore's plays are and should be. For some inexplicable reason, Mr. Gilmore is in the bill for a couple of vocal solos, assisted by chorus. Mr. Gilmore cannot sing, and the same may truthfully be said of the chorus that tried last night to help out. The two attempted musical numbers were a complete fizzle and got barely a single hand clap of applause. The play would be much better off were this feature eliminated.

Miss Rosa Barry, the girl from the Orient, thus called as she is the only American girl before the public giving correct imitations of Chinese characters, singing their songs, playing their instruments and wearing the correct costumes of the Chinese. It will readily be seen that Miss Barry's type of entertainment is in a class by itself, and as this may be the one chance in a life time to witness this unique performance, it should not be missed.

The Wagenhals and Kemper Company will present Miss Anna Russell at Weber's Theatre, New York, on Monday, Nov. 23, in "The Stronger Sex," a comedy by John Valentine, dealing with the international marriage question. The play was seen at the Apollo Theatre, London, over 200 times. The American rights were secured for Miss Russell because the principal character seemed peculiarly well adapted to her delightful personality. Miss Russell has not been seen in New York for two years, when, under the same management, she opened the classic Astor Theatre as "Puck" in the memorable revival of "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

William Gillette is one of those very rare actors whose performances of "Samson" or any other part, differs so interestingly from night to night that even members of his own business staff never lose a chance to "see what he will do tonight." The tremendous scene of the third act—a hand to hand fight for life—is varied in various performances in action and even in dialogue. It is Mr. Gillette's way of never stopping his study of a part until he has stopped playing it.
